

The First National Youth Conference on Environment (NYCE-I) June3-4, 2010(Jestha 20-21,2067)

On the occasion of "World Environment Day 2010" with the theme Many Species, On Planet, One Future, the First National Youth Conference on Environment was held in Kathmandu, Nepal organised by Himalayan Alliance for Climate Change. Around 200 people participated the conference which include natural scientist and social scientist. Most of participators were student in natural sciences. Mr Busanta kumar Paudel(Senior Environment Officer) of Sanima Mai Hydropower P.(Ltd) and Mr Sakunda Ojha (Environment Officer ) of Sanima Hydro and Engineering P.(Ltd) participated in the conference.About 40 people presented the research paper, out of which Mr. Sakunda Ojha presented "Ecological Footprint and Bio-capacity of Kanchenjunga Conservation Area: Contribution to KCA Environment". Most of papers were related to natural sciences such as Biodiversity, Energy, Water engineering, Sanitation, Climate Change etc and some of papers were on development, environmental assessment and natural resources management. This conference was fully based on discussion of presented papers.